PERSONAL DATA – OMES WEBSITE – 2025

POLICY ON THE MANAGEMENT OF PERSONAL DATA AND RELATING TO COOKIES AND INTERNET BEACONS – JULY 2025 VERSION

PERSONAL DATA MANAGEMENT

At Omes Le Cam, we attach great importance to transparency, security and respect for your privacy, in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR) and the recommendations of the CNIL.

The website www.omeslecam.com is for informational purposes only. It does not collect any active personal data (no contact form or newsletter subscription).

However, technical data may be collected automatically during your browsing, through the use of strictly necessary cookies or audience measurement cookies. You can consult our cookie policy at any time to find out more about their use, how long they are stored and how to manage your preferences.

DATA CONTROLLER

The data controller is Omes Le Cam via its legal department, which can be contacted on 02 97 76 13 87 or by email at the following address: donneespersonnelles@armorine.fr. We never pass on your data to third parties for commercial purposes, and any subcontractors (hosting providers, technical or logistics service providers) only have access to it within the strict contractual framework defined by the GDPR.

DATA COLLECTED

The website www.omeslecam.com does not collect any active personal data, as no forms are provided.

Only anonymised browsing data may be automatically collected for statistical purposes, such as partial IP address, browser type, pages viewed, and cookies stored, in particular by Google Analytics.

Omes Le Cam undertakes to comply with the principle of minimisation provided for in Article 5.1.c of the GDPR by collecting only data that is strictly necessary for audience measurement or the proper functioning of the website.

PURPOSES OF THE DATA COLLECTED

The personal data collected on the www.omeslecam.com website is limited to browsing data, through the use of technical and audience measurement cookies (in particular Google Analytics).

It is processed for the sole purpose of: ensuring the proper functioning of the website, measuring its traffic and improving the user experience, complying with applicable legal obligations (e.g. cookie consent management).

Each processing operation is based on one of the legal grounds provided for in Article 6 of the GDPR: your consent, where required (e.g. audience measurement cookies), or the legitimate interest of the data controller in ensuring the security and proper technical functioning of the website.

No data is used for commercial or advertising purposes. Any technical service providers (e.g. hosting providers, cookie managers) only have access to it within a strictly contractual framework in accordance with the GDPR.

DATA RETENTION PERIOD

Data collected through cookies is retained for a maximum period of thirteen months from the date it is stored on the user's device, in accordance with the recommendations of the CNIL (French Data Protection Authority). The website does not collect or retain any other categories of personal data, as no forms or services for entering personal information are offered.

DATA RECIPIENT

Personal data collected on the www.omeslecam.com website is strictly confidential. It is only accessible to persons duly authorised for technical purposes (hosting, website maintenance), within the framework of contractual relationships governed by a subcontracting agreement in accordance with Article 28 of the GDPR.

No data is transferred, sold or transferred to third parties for commercial purposes. However, data may be transferred outside the European Union if technical service providers (such as Google in the context of Google Analytics) are located outside the EU. In this case, Omes Le Cam ensures that appropriate safeguards are in place, in accordance with Articles 44 to 50 of the GDPR, in particular through the use of the European Commission's standard contractual clauses or the existence of an adequacy decision.

DATA SECURITY

Omes Le Cam implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of your browsing on the website, in accordance with Article 32 of the GDPR. These measures aim to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the data collected, however limited it may be.

The website is hosted on secure servers, access is restricted and protected, and any maintenance work is contractually regulated to ensure a high level of data protection.

YOUR RIGHTS - RIGHT OF ACCESS, RECTIFICATION AND OBJECTION

In accordance with Articles 12 to 22 of the GDPR, you have the following rights over your personal data: right of access, rectification, erasure (or right to be forgotten), restriction of processing, objection, portability, and withdrawal of your consent at any time.

You also have the right to determine the fate of your data after your death, in accordance with Article 85 of the amended Data Protection Act. To exercise your rights, you can contact us at the following address : donneespersonnelles@armorine.fr or by post at the following address :

ARMORINE SAS
A l'attention du référent RGPD
BP 70115 56601 LANESTER CEDEX

For any complaints, you can download and fill out this complaint form and send it to us. All requests will be processed within one month, in accordance with Article 12.3 of the GDPR. In the event of persistent disagreement, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the CNIL via www.cnil.fr.

INCIDENT NOTIFICATION

Despite all the attention paid to personal data security and the technical measures implemented by Omes Le Cam, no system is completely immune to incidents or breaches. In accordance with Article 33 of the GDPR, in the event of a personal data breach, Omes Le Cam undertakes to notify the CNIL of the incident within 72 hours, unless the breach is unlikely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of the individuals concerned.

If the breach is likely to pose a high risk, Omes Le Cam will also inform the individuals concerned without delay, providing them with all relevant information about the nature of the breach, the data potentially affected, the measures taken or proposed, and recommendations to limit the negative effects.

Our internal incident notification procedures take into account our legal obligations at both national and European level. We are committed to informing our users in a transparent manner of any breach of the security of their personal data and to assisting them in taking the necessary steps to comply with their own regulatory obligations, if applicable.

Furthermore, no personal information about users of the www.omeslecam.com website is published without the user's knowledge, nor is it exchanged, transferred, assigned or sold to third parties. Only in the event of the acquisition of Omes Le Cam or the www.omeslecam.com website could such information be transferred to the potential purchaser, who would be bound by the same obligations regarding the protection of personal data.

COOKIE AND INTERNET BEACON POLICY

USE OF COOKIES

When you visit the www.omeslecam.com website, cookies or other trackers may be stored on your device (computer, smartphone, tablet), subject to the choices you make, which you can change at any time.

A cookie is a small text file placed on your device by your browser at the request of the server of the website you are visiting. It allows your device to be recognised each time you visit, your preferences to be remembered and information about your browsing to be collected.

The www.omeslecam.com website uses two types of cookies:

- cookies that are strictly necessary for the proper functioning of the website, which do not require prior consent;

- optional cookies (in particular for audience measurement via Google Analytics), which are only placed with your explicit consent.

Cookie Name	Purpose	Type	Retention Period
PHPSESSID	Maintains user session while browsing	Strictly necessary	Until browser is closed

_ga, _gid, _gat	Google Analytics audience measurement	Optional	Up to 13 months
cookie_consent_level	Stores user's cookie preferences	Strictly necessary	13 months

In accordance with CNIL recommendations, only strictly necessary cookies are enabled by default. Optional cookies (such as those linked to Google Analytics) are only enabled after obtaining your consent via the banner displayed during your first visit.

COOKIE SETTINGS AND MANAGEMENT

There are several ways to manage cookies:

– You can configure your browser to notify you of the presence of cookies, or to automatically refuse them, either globally or according to their origin.

– You can also accept or refuse cookies at any time via the information banner displayed during your first visit, or by clicking on the lemon-shaped padlock on the left side of your screen.

– However, refusing certain cookies may affect the proper functioning of certain features of the website.

The retention period for cookies, subject to your consent, is limited to a maximum of 13 months from the date they are placed, in accordance with the recommendations of the CNIL.

HYPERTEXT LINKS

The website www.omeslecam.com may contain links to third-party websites. These links are included with the permission of Omes Le Cam. However, Omes Le Cam has no control over the content or practices of these websites and accepts no responsibility for their data protection policies or the use of cookies that may result from them. It is the user's responsibility to consult the privacy policies of the sites concerned.

INTERNET TAGS

The www.omeslecam.com website uses Google Analytics to analyse traffic and use of the site for statistical purposes.

This tool may use internet tags (‘tags’) and collect certain technical data such as your IP address, browser type, operating system, pages viewed, or time spent on the site. This information is processed in an aggregated and anonymised manner for the purpose of improving the content and performance of the site.

No personal data is used for marketing or individual profiling purposes.

Some data may be transferred outside the European Union, in particular to the United States, in accordance with the appropriate safeguards provided for in Articles 44 to 50 of the GDPR.

CONSENT AND MODIFICATIONS

When you first visit our website, a banner informs you about the use of cookies and tags, including for audience measurement purposes. No optional cookies are stored without your prior consent.

Omes Le Cam reserves the right to modify this policy at any time, in particular to comply with legislative or regulatory changes. Any changes will take effect as soon as they are published on this page. We encourage you to check it regularly.

You can change your choice at any time by clicking on the yellow ‘Padlock’ icon at the bottom left of the screen.
